

"I actually believe it does take a village to raise a child; but the problem is, no one ever tells you what that village is supposed to look like" -Clay Roberts

Please join us for this special community event!

Raising Happy and Successful Children: A Developmental Assets Approach

Light refreshments, childcare (5 and over) and Spanish translation provided!

Thursday, October 17, 2013
6:00pm-8:00pm
Paly High School Library

Clay Roberts

Clay Roberts is the founder of Roberts and Associates, a national educational consulting firm dedicated to the development of healthy, contributing young people. His clients include the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the U.S. Department of Justice, and the American Medical Association. Mr. Roberts is well known for his lively presentations that inspire communities throughout the U.S.

Clay Roberts, national trainer and education consultant will share how every adult in our community can work together to help children achieve to their maximum potential.

Participants will learn about:

- Positive experiences or qualities that influence the choices of children and youth, guiding them to become successful adults
- How assets enable youth to succeed in school
- How to promote the health and well-being of children and youth in our community

For more information about this event, please contact, Brenda Carrillo at (650) 329-3769 or via email at bcarrillo@pausd.org.

This event is sponsored by PAUSD in partnership with Project Safety Net.

